Hardworking, result driven, dynamic, team player, compassionate. I'm Currently working in a 100% export oriented knit garments for more than 8 years. I want to achieve big success in my career and be in a position where I can help others and do something better for themselves and the society.

I mainly specialize in team working achieving goals with team work. My current job has helped me improved my merchandising abilities and has helped me to solve problems within short time. Mainly working with a team of various demographics has also helped me to understand the needs of people and also taught me to how to be useful to the society.

I mainly work with sportswear, so it has helped me to understand the fashion trends of sports clothes, and has also made me a skilled merchandiser.
